

Hot Tip #21

Beat the Heat this Summer!

Summer is finally upon us and that means scorching hot weather is not far behind! Extreme temperatures often result in power outages leaving your business without electricity for hours at a time. These interruptions in service can range from a slight inconvenience to a complete disaster—depending on the preparedness of you and your business. Such outages can mean the loss of phone service, the lifeline of your business.

ITS Can Help You Keep Your Cool with our VoIP Solution

Voice over Internet Protocol provides a variety of enhanced features to your businesses communication system. In the event of a phone outage, phone calls can be forwarded to your cell phone or any other phone of your choice so that your business can continue running smoothly. *Check out some of these other benefits that VoIP can offer:

- 3-Way Calling
- Call Waiting(w caller ID)/Cancel
- Simultaneous Ringing
- Call Transfer
